SUPPLEMENT

TO

Mr. GILBERT's

PLAN and BILLS

FOR THE

Relief of the Poor, &c.

K3

To the R E A D E R.

HAVING been encouraged, by the Conversation I have had with many respectable Members of both Houses of Parliament; and by a Correspondence with many respectable Magistrates in the different Counties, who have read my former Address, and the Bills respecting the Poor, printed therewith, I have been induced to return, and again to bring forward, the Consideration of those very important Matters.

I think the increased Distresses of this Country by our late Calamities, so far from retarding, call aloud for a vigorous and speedy Execution of the Plan proposed, as it cannot, I apprehend, fail of giving an immediate Relief from the Burdens we already sustain by the Poor and County Rates, sufficient at least to enable the People the better to bear, and consequently more cheerfully to contribute to the additional Taxes, which must inevitably fall upon them.

I have

To the R E A D E R.

HAVING been encouraged, by the Conversation I have had with many respectable Members of both Houses of Parliament; and by a Correspondence with many respectable Magistrates in the different Counties, who have read my former Address, and the Bills respecting the Poor, printed therewith, I have been induced to resume, and again to bring forward, the Consideration of those very important Matters.

I think the increased Distresses of this Country by our late Calamities, so far from retarding, call aloud for a vigorous and speedy Execution of the Plan proposed, as it cannot, I apprehend, fail of giving an immediate Relief from the Burdens we already sustain by the Poor and County Rates, sufficient at least to enable the People the better to bear, and consequently more cheerfully to contribute to the additional Taxes, which must inevitably fall upon them.

I have, therefore, again presented to the House the Three Bills, "For Amending, ~~and rendering more Effectual, the~~ "Laws in being relative to Houses of "Correction."

"For the better Relief and Employment of the Poor," and,

"For Amending, and rendering more "Effectual, the several Laws in being relative to Rogues, Vagabonds, Beggars, "and other idle and disorderly Persons."

I have interspersed, in these Bills, such Additions and Alterations as appear to me necessary to render them more complete, from the Hints and Observations I have been honoured with from many of those respectable Persons to whom the former Bills were communicated.

In the Execution of the intended Acts, great Burdens will lie upon the Guardians, and the Constables; and although I wish as much as possible, to guard against the Introduction of Salaries, thinking they may afford Temptations to an undue Preference in the Election of those Officers; yet considering, at the same Time, that, in large and populous Parishes and Towns, they must engross the whole Employment of the Persons who execute them, if they give them that Attention which they ought, and the Nature of the Business requires; I have inserted inserted Two Clauses hereunto annexed; marked B and D; the former respecting the Guardians, in the Poor Bill; and the other respecting Constables, in the Vagrant Bill, for the Allowance of Salaries to those Officers; and have guarded them, in the best Manner I can, to render them effectual, and prevent Abuse. If the same Officers shall be continued, the Business will be much better done, and with less Trouble to the Magistrates.

In order to ascertain what Parishes and Towns ought to be deemed large and populous, within the Meaning of this Act, it seems proper that they should be adjudged and certified by Two Justices of Peace; and I have prepared a Form for that Purpose, which is also hereunto annexed.

In order to enforce the Vagrant Laws, and to ease the Expence of Passing Vagrants from one County to another, and to avoid the infinite Trouble it occasions to Parish Officers, who, in some Places, have Ten or Twenty Miles to go to a Justice of Peace, in order to get the necessary Certificate, that Mode of Conveyance is altered by the Clause C, hereunto annexed, inserted in the Vagrant Bill, by which, instead of sending them to the First Parish in the next County, if the Settlement is within the next County, they are the Lord of the Manor, and the major to be sent immediately to the Place of Settlement; and if in any remote County they are to be sent to the House of Correction of the next County, and so from County to County, till they arrive at their Place of Settlement; and if able to work, and there shall be Room and Convenience for it, they are to be kept to hard Labour in every House of Correction, until they have earned sufficient to defray the Expences of maintaining and conveying them: It is apprehended this will prevent many Acts of Vagrancy, and deter those from seeking Conveyances by Bawlers, who are not real Objects of the Act. It is not doubted but it will greatly reduce the County Expences, and have a much better Effect than Whipping; when Houses of Correction shall be put into a proper State and Condition to receive and employ them.

 In order to render this Business as easy and practicable as may be, the Form of the Pass from One House of Correction to another, is inserted in the Vagrant Bill, and hereunto annexed.
 As an Encouragement to the Poor Houses, where there are Wastes or Common Lands lying contiguous ther-to, it will be of equal Use to inclose a small Part of them, with the Consent of the

the Lord of the Manor, and the major Part of the Persons having Right of Common thereupon, for the Purpose of Building, Gardens, Orchards, &c. and there is a Clause added for that Purpose.

The Poor Bill is optional in all Parts, except that which respects Guardians in populous Parishes and Towns, where the Inhabitants are compelled, under a Penalty, to elect a Guardian at a Vestry Meeting, and to allow him a Salary; but some Gentlemen have approved so much of the Poor Bill as to wish that it might be general and compulsory upon all Parishes and Places, which have not the Benefit of a particular Act of Parliament; but it appears to me more prudent to try it in the Shape it now stands, leaving every Parish and Town at Liberty, till it becomes their own Choice; not doubting but many in every County will immediately adopt it, by which Means the Experiment will soon be made, and many others most probably will be induced to follow the example, after it shall have been fairly tried. It may therefore be considered in some future Session of Parliament, whether it may not be expedient, if the Experiment succeeds, to enforce it by a compulsory Law. As the

As I am very anxious to have these Bills perfectly understood, and maturely considered, by the Members, I have in the annexed Schedule, printed the several Alterations made in the former Bills, and the new Clauses which are added, with References to the Pages in my former printed Book, where they are inserted; and have added a short Index referring to the material Parts of each of the Three Bills.

I apprehend, that under these Three Bills, as they now stand, there are effectual Provisions for relieving and employing the distressed Poor; and those who are able to work, and for punishing and reforming those who are idle, dissolute, and abandoned; and for preventing Frauds, Abuses, and Impositions, in the Application of the Money collected by the Poor's Rates; which are the great Principles upon which I undertook this Business: but I am still aware, there are many Defects in the Bills, which I hope, by the Attention and Abilities of other Gentlemen, will be corrected when they come to be discussed and settled in the Committee.

It has been very truly said, that these Provisions do not extend to all the Mischiefs and Inconveniencies arising under the Poor Laws; those respecting Settlements, ments, Certificates, Removal of Paupers, and Bastard Children, are intentionally omitted; as it may be difficult precisely to adjust all those Points in such Manner as may not produce a Contrariety of Opinions, and endanger that Bill in its future Progress. I rather wish to have a separate Bill, or Bills brought in for those Purposes, or so many of them as shall be thought proper, in the Course of the present Sessions, to which I will give every Assistance in my Power.

As I think the Bill respecting charitable Donations, mentioned in my former Book, will produce some Resources for the Care, Education, and Relief of Poor Children of tender Years, and the Care and Relief of Diseased and Infirm People, who are poor, and want the Benefit of an Hospital, and more than common Assistance; I propose bringing in a Bill for that Purpose after the Holidays, as it is so much connected with the general Plan of the Poor Bill.

T. GILBERT.
